

central content
column area likes
bluey

black/white image to give older-day impression of what these mills were originally like, feelings of independence

BG colour is like wheat/flour (go for a simple monochromatic scheme)

black-white
mill image

centered
title

Independent Flour Mills

intro & table of contents (internal links to sections)

HR divider

Canadian All-Purpose Flour

common Canadian
all-purpose
flour image

pre-reg flour
Knowledge,
audience capture
paragraph, relatable to Canadian flour & its uses

Small Independent Canadian Mills

Flourist

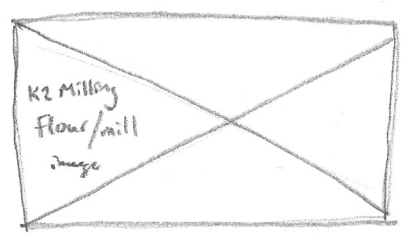

Flourist brand
flour/mill
image

more
next page
TMR

cont'd Flourist
content

Article 1
Flourist milling
& flour info (has a link to external site)

K2 Milling

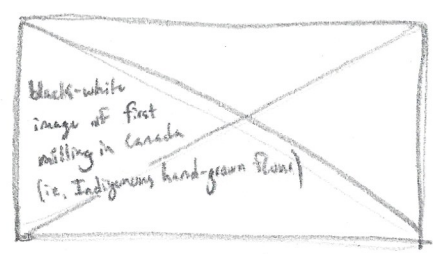

Article 2
K2 Milling & flour info (has a link to external site)

History of Canadian Flour Milling short paragraph about history of Canadian flour milling w/external link to learn

more

nice symmetry by ending w/ a BW image since it also started w/ one (BW-images help keep main focus on the flour & independent mills)

MMB